Component Mission

The Inspector General (IG) conducts, supervises, and coordinates inspections, audits, investigations, and reviews relating to the programs and operations over which the Director of National Intelligence has authority and responsibility.

The Intelligence Authorization Act for Fiscal Year 2010 established the Office of the Inspector General of the Intelligence Community within the Office of the Director of National Intelligence. The ICIG's mission is to provide independent and objective oversight of the programs and activities within the responsibility and authority of the Director of National Intelligence, to initiate and conduct independent audits, inspections, investigations, and reviews, and to lead and coordinate the efforts of the Intelligence Community Inspectors General Forum. The ICIG's goal is to have a positive and enduring impact throughout the Intelligence Community, to lead and coordinate the efforts of an integrated Intelligence Community Inspectors General Forum, and to enhance the ability of the United States Intelligence Community to meet national security needs while respecting our nation's laws and reflecting its values. The Forum consists of the twelve statutory and administrative Inspectors General having oversight responsibility for an element of the Intelligence Community. The Chair of the Forum is the Inspector General of the Intelligence Community.

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Serves as a Hotline Program Analyst assigned to the ICIG Hotline Program.
- Answers incoming phone calls to the ICIG Hotline by speaking clearly, distinctly, and with a friendly, courteous tone.
- Listens to and records all incoming hotline complaints and makes recommendations to the Hotline Program Manager regarding next appropriate steps.
- As directed, coordinate, compile, and organize all essential information and materials to assist the Hotline Program Manager in the execution of daily mission objectives.
- Prepare written correspondence to record in-person intakes, routine administrative forms, referral memoranda to ODNI Components and other Federal agencies, and complainant acknowledgement, when appropriate.
- Places follow-up phone calls to customers regarding intakes when necessary to clarify or obtain additional information associated with the alleged complaint.
- Uses listening skills to put callers at ease to obtain accurate and complete information.
- Maintain accurate record keeping of intakes and other supporting documentation.
- Coordinate with other ODNI components and/or IC elements regarding alleged complaints when necessary.

Mandatory Requirements

- Knowledge of telephone consoles and related equipment.
- Demonstrated customer service experience and knowledge of customer service standards and procedures.
- Ability to interact and communicate with people over the telephone, often in stressful situations.
- Basic knowledge of the ODNI, IC agencies' mission, organization, collection and production responsibilities, as well as ODNI and IC administrative policies, procedures, and authorities.
- Ability to exercise sound judgment and form objective conclusions/recommendations based on empirical facts, evidence, and other pertinent information.
- Analytical, critical thinking, and problem solving skills, including the ability to interpret basic information from multiple sources.
- Experience working in a fast-paced environment and handling multiple requirements at the same time.
- Demonstrated oral and written communication skills.
